From our Pastor & Asst Pastor Mrs Peter

You are all specially welcome to the 8th Anniversary of The Redeemed Christian Church of God Jesus House Huntsville, Alabama. This is the eighth edition of our annual magazine to commemorate the 8th Anniversary of RCCG JHH, Alabama.

“And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth”

- JOHN 1:14

The theme for this year's anniversary is "FROM GLORY TO GLORY". This can be found in the Book of John 1:14, "And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth". Brethren, it is the will of God to take us from one level of glory to another. The glory which shall be revealed in us is an ever-growing glory that comes straight from within. II Corinthians 3:18 – Paul writes "We all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another".

It is noteworthy to appreciate God for the acquisition of an ultra-modern mega sanctuary for RCCG Jesus House Huntsville, located at 4906 Blue Springs Road NW, Huntsville AL, 35810. All glory be to God for this landmark achievement. As we celebrate the 8th Anniversary of RCCG JHH, I declare that the Lord will continue to move you from Glory to Glory in Jesus Name. Amen.

They started praying for a pastor, interceding to God for a revival and the establishment of a RCCG Parish in Huntsville AL.

ON MEMORY LANE

@ 2907 Governors Drive

The Church eventually moved to 2907 Governors Drive Huntsville, Alabama through the generosity of Dr. Adebimpe Adebiji who surrendered a space for the church rent free. Pastor Peter Oyediran and Deaconess Kehinde Oyediran and family were commissioned and sent from RCCG Jesus House Chicago, Illinois under the leadership of Pastor Bayo Adewole to pastor the church in November, 2009. Now the church has a pastor, the work has just started!

@ 407 Jordan Lane

The church moved to 407 Jordan Lane where the church experienced the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit, Healing, Deliverance and Winning of Souls. At last, the prayers of the founding intercessors have been answered and everyone can identify to belong to Jesus House Huntsville. Over a period of 6 years, the church has been privileged to have countless number of highly anointed men of God from all walks of life both in the Redeemed Christian Church of God and other non denominational Holy Spirit filled churches. Who did this? Jesus!

@ 4906 Blue Springs Church Auditorium

Jesus House Huntsville is a place to grow, belong and become what God has ordained you to be. In November 2015, we finally moved to our New Church Auditorium on Blue Springs where the Redeemed Christian Church of God in Huntsville now welcome everybody from all walks of life.

Our Church is multicultural and diversified. That is the more reason why we are called our Jesus House Huntsville for All Nations.

The atmosphere is blessed with the Shekinah Glory of the Lord and whenever worship is in the air, all yokes are broken, all chains are falling and every life is blessed.

Every service in this sanctuary since November 2015 is an heaven on earth experience and we are just getting started with the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Our Lord Jesus Christ is the same today, tomorrow and forever!

Despise NOT THE DAYS LITTLE BEGINNING...

Like every God planted church, the begining is not always like the beautiful edifice or the buzz we see and feel today. Just like the Redeemed Christian Church of God was founded by Pa Akindayomi who got a promised covenant from God that the church will grow to every parts of the world and today the Redeemed Christian Church of God is in over 190 nations of the worldwith millions of worshipers. Such is the humble begining of Jesus House Huntsville. Nothing was guaranteed expect the word of the Living God that never fails!

Looking back to 6 years ago, its just like yesterday but a lot of prayer, intercession, patience have been sowed into the foundation of this church by the pioneer founding members both far and wide. The church spent a long span of 6 years learning, grooming and growing at 407 Jordan Lane where a lot of people entered into deep intimate relationship with God. Today Jesus House Huntsville is one of the biggest churches in Huntsville Alabama.

My dear, nothing in life is guaranteed untill you have that Living Word! "And the word became flesh and dwelth among us" Little begining and growing in life can be very difficult and tough without the living word of God which we can also call a promised covenant from God, A lot of times you feel like quitting, but never quit because He has promised and He will never fail, His faithfulness is forvermore and He has promised you a better ending. If you are not sure about your relationship with God and you dont even know if you have that promised covenant, then its high time to seek the Lord.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected ends.

Jeremiah 29:11

We are one in the family of the Lord.

When people come together in unity to lift up their voice in prayer, miracles, signs and wonders fall from heaven. Coming together in prayer becons on the voice of God. "The voice of the Lord is like the sound of many waters" - This voice scares away every problem in lives and destinies.

2011 Mount Zion Summit

The year 2011 was one of the biggest memories when we launched a series of Mount Zion summits. It was one of the biggest programs of the year with a lot of manifestations of the Holy Spirit.

HE WILL DO A NEW THING

The number eight in the Bible represents a time of new beginning, the Lord saved Noah and his family (total of eight in number) in an ark to make a new beginning which signals a new era (2 Peter 2:5).

In this article, we would examine eight lessons in the life of a virtuous woman, in the 8th book of the Bible (Ruth) who experienced a new era even though she was a foreigner. God is a God of principle, it doesn't matter your position or designation, if you draw near to God, He will surely draw near unto you (James 4:8); He will begin a new thing in your life, move you from glory to glory, and your life will never remain the same.

LOVE

The greatest commandment for any serious minded child of God is to love (Matthew 22: 37-40). We are commanded to love God and love our neighbors. Ruth found herself in a precarious situation but refused to let go of the God of Israel. She decided to follow God to an unknown destination just like Abraham. This is an indication of love for God and the people of God (Ruth 1:17). How easy is it for you to demonstrate your love toward God and His people in times of tribulations or unfavorable situations? The church in Ephesus received condemnation because they abandoned their first love for God (Revelation 2:4). It is important to ask God for the grace to love Him more and more on a daily basis with a significant reflection on the people around you. To love is not an option, but an act of obedience to God.

SELF DETERMINATION

Sometimes in the journey of life, you are surrounded by people, situations, or circumstances to discourage you and make you turn your back on God or at least slow you down in your Christian race; the choice is always yours either to yield to the devices of the enemy or not. Ruth was in a similar situation, but she encouraged herself in the Lord. Sometimes you are the only one that can encourage yourself, if you are waiting for someone else to do it for you at that point in time, you may find yourself drowning in the sea of self-pity. Discouragement can come from any angle, even from your loved ones knowingly or unknowingly (Ruth 1:18) and the goal is to throw you off balance and thereby prevent you from attaining the plan and purpose of God for your life; watch out and hold on to the right and only Pillar of life.

ENTHUSIASM

While Ruth was in the field, she served diligently to the point that she was noticed by Boaz, the field master (Ruth 2:5). Whatever you find yourself doing in your day to day activities, do it enthusiastically knowing fully well that God is the only one that can reward your labor of love. Don't wait for commendation from man so that you will not be derailed. Ruth remained focused and did not lose her reward, you also need to work relentlessly in such a way that you are not deprived of your reward.

SACRIFICIAL OFFERING:

Ruth offered herself to the God of Israel without looking back. This implies that sacrificial offering is not just in material things, your personal commitment to the things of the Lord in any way will never be in vain.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Romans 12:1 Remember that your body is the temple of God, therefore keep your vessels and your surroundings readily available for the Master's use.

HUMILITY:

Ruth humbled herself to fulfill the wish of her mother-in-law.

She had an option to follow younger men or someone from her own tribe, but she chose otherwise. Humility opens the door to exaltation. Someone that finds it difficult to humble himself may find it difficult to obey God. Ruth obeyed the mentor of her life without questioning which can sometimes be difficult, but the grace of God will always be sufficient for you as you lean upon the Rock that never fails.

FAITH:

She was a woman of faith. Her faith in God helped her to look up far above the situations and circumstances surrounding her. She moved to the next level of her life because of her trust in the God of Israel. Faith in God will help you to please God, and when your way pleases God, the enemy of your breakthrough will not have an option but to bow before you.

PRESSING ON:

Ruth demonstrated the message of Paul by putting her past behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before. She pressed on toward the mark for the prize of the high calling and she was able to attain her goal (Philippians 3:13-14). Learn from your past mistakes, focus on today, and hope for a better tomorrow through Christ that strengthens you.

MERCY OF GOD:

Ruth was definitely a beneficiary of the mercy of God (Romans 9:15-16). The mercy of God will qualify you when your strength and the strength of your helpers fail. Naomi loved her two daughters-in-law (Orpah and Ruth) who both pleaded to return with her unto the land of Judah (Ruth 1:10). However, the mercy of God qualified Ruth to become part of the earthly family through which our Savior came into the world.

In this new season, be expectant, demonstrate your love towards God and His people and never allow that love to wax cold, He will surely do a new thing in your life IJN.

OFFERING YOUR BODY AS A LIVING SACRIFICE

The title suggests the author is going to talk about not engaging in sexual sin, and some of us may find it quite irrelevant, but hold on there's a lot more to the topic so read on, this is definitely a write up that will be applicable to every reader both young and old, black and white, etc.

I am addressing the issue of living in love and unity as Christians. I always tremble at the last part of Galatians 5:21:

"That they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God"

To think that if we live exhibiting anger, selfish ambitions, envy and the like, we will not inherit the kingdom of God makes me shudder because it is very rampant among believers. For those of us who want to make it to heaven, this is a serious thing to ponder over; let's be encouraged more than ever before as we read through this write up to let love dwell in this mortal body.

Recently in my rush not to be late for an appointment, I left the electric oven on. Since I am the last person to usually leave home in the morning, you can imagine the implications of this. About 10 minutes after leaving home, I remembered I had not taken an item I will need, so I drove back home to pick it. I could not be thankful enough that the Lord had brought me back at such a critical time. Later that same day, I asked someone to do something for me and at a time when I was expecting that service rendered he just said "Oops I forgot". I was just about to show disappointment and complain, when the Holy Spirit quickly ministered to me. "You also forgot something and I did not hold it against you. Can't you do same for your brother?" Brethren, let's forgive one another our faults just as Christ has forgiven us freely. Most of us behave like the man who was forgiven his debt in millions but immediately dragged someone who owed him a few thousands to prison. Matthew 18:21-35.

I don't know how many of us want to be blessed in our homes and ministries. Psalm 133:3b gives a recipe for receiving God's blessings. I paraphrase: For there (in the midst of brethren dwelling together in unity) the Lord bestows His blessings.

Let's look at this analogy; our body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. In other words the owner and controller of the body is God and anything done against us is against the Holy Spirit of God. If I buy a house and dwell in it, I own the house; the house does not own me, so if we truly allow the Holy Spirit to be in control we can overcome anger and every work of the flesh.

The bible says if your brother takes your cloak from you hand over your coat as well. Hmm!!!! We have a lot of responsibility to work on ourselves if we really want to make it to heaven. Let the silent trade between spouses and between brethren stop when there are disagreements. Even if your spouse or 'brother in Christ' is at fault, give him/her a hug/kiss and tell him "let sleeping dogs lie for the sake of peace". When I shared this with a young man recently he said "well if she is angry let her stay with her anger". Well let's look at it this way, think of the two of you (husband and wife) or brethren in the church as building together, whenever there's disunity and anger against one another a part of the wall comes off. In such a situation the best thing to do will be to help the weaker partner overcome his/her weaknesses instead of living with the silent trade where one is angry and the other looks on aloof.

For those of us who are not mindful of others and are in the habit of hurting others, let's beware because if "blessed are the peace makers then it is reasonable to say that cursed is the one that separates". Let's make every effort to work on ourselves with the help of the Spirit of God.

There are people in our midst hurting and sick and our aim should be to pray till the sick are healed in our midst or sinners come to the saving knowledge of God etc. Lamentations 2:19 says we should wake in the middle of the night and pour out our hearts before God like water. There is a lot in the body of Christ we can pray about if we showed concern for one another. In other words, the hurting child is everyone's child and until he/she is well, we should all be burdened.

I am convinced beyond every reasonable doubt that if we live in love and harmony as a church or family in the way that the bible prescribes, the things that will be happening in our midst will just be too wonderful; and evangelism will be very easy.

I conclude with Philippians 4:8: Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

PURSUE, OVERTAKE AND RECOVER ALL - David Tettey

This is one of many sermons that has blessed my heart and it is an honor to share it with us on this special occasion. Our text will largely center on 1 Samuel 30:1-8. Four main issues shall be discussed from this text. I trust that the Lord will minister unto us as we read through the body of this text.

A brief background about how David acquired Ziklag is summarized here: In 1 Sam 22:2, David became the captain of a group of people who were destitute, indebted and discontented. While escaping from the sword of Saul, David met with King Achish of Gath and requested for Ziklag which was given to him (1 Sam 27:6). David therefore made Ziklag his camp where he and his mighty men, the destitute, the distressed, the indebted and frustrated group dwelt. In 2nd Samuel 23: 8-13, the account shows that David raised up a group of mighty men who went on war expeditions with him. The city Ziklag became a secure and a comfortable place where they dwelt with their wives and kids. One day, while David and his mighty men returned from one of his many warring expeditions, they saw that Ziklag had been invaded and burnt down by the Amalekites, 1 Samuel 30:1. Bible scholars say that the Amalekites were a war-like people or cave men who loved to lick blood; they hide in the dark, come out all of a sudden and pounce on their unsuspecting victims. The sudden invasion and destruction of Ziklag by the Amalekites is akin to some challenges we face as Christians when we think we have arrived. When we are in our Ziklag, our secure place, when we think we are strong and untouchable; where our confidence is; sometimes we find the Amalekites (the enemy) invading our camp to cause a lot of havoc. In John 10:10, the bible says the thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. Jesus has however given us hope in the same verse by saying "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly". It is clear from the passage that David and his mighty men were careless by not ensuring that they had mighty men to protect Ziklag while away. This is a lesson for us to be always watchful as believers: 1 Peter 5:8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

Furthermore, when we are faced with such unexpected misfortunes, there are usually 2 kinds of attitudes: wailing or prevailing. Wailers weep and wail, while prevailers take up arms and fight against their enemies. Wailers complain and blame everybody including God for their troubles. Prevailers prove more powerful than the force opposing them. David's men experienced the same problem – a common enemy attacked all of them and their families were taken captive; some were wailers and others were prevailers.

We can look at wailing and prevailing as a natural and supernatural reaction to crisis respectively. It is ordinary to wail when you are attacked but it takes something extraordinary in the inside of us to rise up against your assailants. Our attitudes, and not the magnitude of an attack, determines our reaction to crisis – if we are strong, every attack looks small. Wailers respond negatively to trials and afflictions. David's men clearly demonstrated this negative attitude when they found out that Ziklag had been raised to the ground. Like David, let's encourage ourselves to be prevailers and not wailers when we face diverse kinds of trials.

It is interesting to note in verse 6 of the text, the determination of the people to stone David for a disaster that had befallen them all including David himself. It is surprising how we easily point accusing fingers towards our leaders anytime there is a mishap. We have to appreciate that a lot of times, our leaders may be going through much more challenging situations than we are; and the best we can do is to keep praying for them instead of pointing accusing fingers at them.

Another important lesson we can learn is found in verses 7 and 8; "7: And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. 8: And David enquired at the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? Shall I overtake them? And He answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

David knew that as a priest of Israel, God will speak to him when he wears the ephod; and truly, God spoke to him when he enquired of the Lord. It is my prayer that we shall wear our ephods not only when life's challenges confront us as Christians, but at all times. May the Lord speak to us in times like this. I believe strongly that life becomes easier when we take our time to listen to the voice of God other than the voices of our physical strength and strategies. Let us note the certainty with which God assured David. He did not say maybe or it is probable that thou shall overtake them. The two words that stand out are SURELY and WITHOUT FAIL; pursue, for thou shall SURELY overtake them, and WITHOUT FAIL recover all. There are no probabilities with God. What are some of the difficult situations that have haunted us for some many years? The Lord is speaking to us with all certainty that let us arise and PURSUE those situations for he will without fail cause us to conquer them. Is it a generational curse? Is it poverty? Is it a chronic disease? The Lord is saying, pursue, for thou shall surely overtake and without fail, recover all. We are victors in Christ; let us live accordingly as children of God.

VICTORIOUS PRAISE

Every year, we have been witnessing the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit. One of the special events where we praise God beyond any physical or spiritual limits is the Power Conference. This year's power conference was full of praises to Jesus Christ our redeemer. Important dignitaries from far and near were around to celebrate and worship our Lord with us. Make a date with us in 2018 to attend the Power Conference and you will be blessed beyond compare.

We Hosted the duo of Abraham Ogunlade and Victor Olayeni. Abraha is a Spirit filled Saxophonist from ATL while Victor is a reknown worship leader from Days Star Living Church in Nigeria.
