The little praying group.

Rome was not built in day and our best is yet to come. The Church started by the inspiration God gave to Pastor Enefaa Fenny, the pastor of RCCG JESUS HOUSE Birmingham, Alabama. The little group started to meet as a house fellowship in the house of Bro. Toye Ogunfowokan. Without a resident pastor, the number grew and they started using Church of Christ' sanctuary, where services were held in the evenings. The group started praying for a pastor, interceding to God for a revival and the establishment of a RCCG Parish in Huntsville AL. This prayer eventually led to the arrival of Pastor Peter Oyediran from Chicago.

Let's travel to HOW IT ALL BEGAN

SEPTEMBER 2009

@ 2907 Governors Drive

The church eventually moved to 2907 Governors Drive Huntsville, Alabama through the generosity of Dr. Adebimpe Adebiyi who surrendered a space for the church rent free. The answer to the little group's prayer finally came. Pastor Peter and his family were commissioned and sent from RCCG Jesus House Chicago, Illinois under the leadership of Pastor Bayo Adewole to pastor the church in November, 2009. Now the church has a pastor, the work has just started!

@ 407 Jordan Lane

The church moved to 407 Jordan Lane where the church experienced the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit, healing, deliverance and winning of souls. At last, the prayers of the founding intercessors have been answered and everyone can identify to belong to Jesus House Huntsville. Over a period of 6 years, the church has been privileged to have countless number of highly anointed men of God from all walks of life both in the Redeemed Christian Church of God and other non denominational Holy Spirit filled churches. # LET YOUR LIGHT Shine!

- written by Sanmi Ayotunde

One day, Jesus, the one called Rabbi, which means great lecturer, from one of his campuses (mountain top) delivered one of his best and longest lectures to his students and the multitudes who came to his open air lecture. He said "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father". Jesus was addressing people who already left their houses to come to him, disciples (students) and multitudes who already left their daily activities to follow him into this remote distant learning bootcamp. While some people are busy having fun in the city, these people decided to follow Jesus into the wilderness, the mountain and sometimes they even cross city to city with him.

And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan. (Matthew 4:25)

These people look like today's christians who have left the busy world of sin to follow Jesus. "Let your light so shine before men!" Jesus is telling us that we should allow the light in us to shine so bright so that the people of the world can see it! It is such a pity today that most christians are not shining. Most christians are living in the oblivion. They claim to carry so much fire but yet, no one sees them burn nor catch their flame. They claim to be loved by the master of the universe, but the universe knows nothing about them. Is that how Christ has called us to live? NO! As a matter of fact, in Genesis 1:28, when God, the creator of the universe blessed us, He told us to go and subdue the earth and have dominion over every living thing that moves on the earth. The natural ability of a man is to rule like a king! Everything you need to be great has already been deposited inside of you before you left heaven. That is why Jesus said "You are the light of the world" You are already a light. He did not say, I will make you a light. It is such a pity that most people still go back to God in prayer asking for blessings, when he has already blessed you with every perfect gift!

It is high time you arose to the full potential of what you are created to be. There is a light inside of you that the world must see. The second part of Matthew 5:16 says "that they may see your good works". This means there are works you must deliver. YOU MUST WORK! Not just action work, but brain work. You must put your brain, your mindset, and your gifts to work until people see the result of your productivity. You must change your mindset to align with Jesus' concept for you. You must understand you are a light that must shine. If you do not shine, you will disappoint your father in heaven. Stop sitting down on a gold mine, you need to work to bring out the beauty of the gifts in you. Christians are not called to be ordinary. We have the advantage of the "HOLY SPIRIT", the great teacher, a helper, and the spirit of God himself. The people of the world only use their brain to make things work and they get results. We christians have an advantage of using our brain with the cooperation of the Holy Spirit to get ten times the result of normal people.

Why must you shine if the world is not your home? Some christians say we are just pilgrims, so the focus is not to shine here on earth. Jesus answered this question in the same verse "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father" When you shine, you are exalting the name of your father, you are bringing glory to the name of the Lord. Sinners will not have the audacity to say "what does your God have to offer?". You can boldly win souls to the kingdom of God your father. Lastly, God dislikes wasters of His resources. He put all these gifts in you for a purpose, if you waste it, He will not be happy with you. He is an investor who wants to be praised and be proud of His company of which you are a CEO. Apart from physical gifts, what about spiritual gifts? words of wisdom, faith, word of knowledge, healing, prophecy, interpretation of tongues, teaching, leadership, exhortation and many more.

To be honest, look at these gifts intensely, most of them are useless in heaven! You must use them here! No one is sick in heaven, the saints in heaven need no prophecy, they already have faith, they need no interpretation of tongues or dreams. These spiritual gifts are for the edification of the body of Christ. Do not go down to the grave with the physical and spiritual gifts God has deposited in you. In addition, you will be a waster of divine resources. Arise today with a conviction to become a light, to shine so bright that the world may see. Say this prayer along "My father, if truly you made me a light, I want to shine. Give me the grace to shine so bright. I don't want to be a waste. I cannot help myself, I rely on you, I want you to help me. If you have not yet known Jesus, talk to someone today and get introduced to him. He is the greatest teacher and the author of the best selling book of all time - The Holy Bible.

GIFTS AND CALLING

- written by David Tettey

Gifts and calling lie at the heart of every leadership vocation. In order to exercise leadership in any area of life, we must know our gifts and calling. Throughout the Bible, we see a pattern of people being called to step up into leadership roles. They are not all called in the same way. However, there is a point in the lives of people when they sense that a demand is being placed on them to step into leadership. That point is the point where they become aware that their lives must be lived for something bigger than their own personal purpose; that is what we call a 'calling'. Everyone has a calling in one way or the other.

Text: Romans 12:6-7 and 1 Peter 4:10-11

Although the above passages speak about spiritual gifts and how to use them, the principles there apply to our natural gifts and how to use them as well. The few thoughts we can bring out are that:

1. Our gifts are not the same. No two gifts are exactly the same because every gift is personalized.
2. Our gifts show God's ability in us. It is a sign of God's Grace in us.
3. Our gifts require good stewardship. We have to properly use the gifts God has given us. If we use our gifts well, they will function well for us and the reverse applies.
4. Our gifts should be our area of operation. Our gift should be the basis of what we do. For example, if we have a gift in singing, we should not go and teach. We can however, have multiple gifts and hence operate in multiple areas.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GIFT? There are four areas we can look at to know what our gift is. These are:

1. Talent: this is what you can do naturally without a lot of effort. It is the way you are wired. It could be the ability to easily tell a story or dance.
2. Passion: this is what you really love doing. It can be likened to fire in the belly. Without passion, talent will die. Talent is like the body of a car and passion is like the engine in the car. Those with talents without an accompanying passion do not go far.
3. Experience: this is when you apply talent and passion in real life situations. Like we all know, experience is a great teacher. It helps to perfect your talent.
4. Training: this is what you learn to do (either formal or informal). About 80% of the time, the formal training we get is not directly related to our talents and passion. Overtime however, we are able to find a way to converge our training, talent and passion. Don't throw away your training because it will definitely fuel your talent one day.

When we mix the above four things, we can tell what our gift is. A gift is God's investment in your life. Our calling is our investment into peoples' lives. In other words, a gift is what God has given us and a calling is what we are giving to the world. Our calling makes us a blessing to the world.

There are 3 ways we can look at calling.

1. There is a General Call for everyone to be born again. It is a call to all humanity to receive Jesus as our Lord and personal savior.
2. There is also a Christian Call to be like Christ.
3. There is a Vocational Call which is the calling to work for Christ.

In this article we shall briefly address Vocational Calling. There are two kinds of Vocational Call, the sacred call (for Pastors, Missionaries, Evangelist etc.) and the circular call (to all other areas of life). Both calls are equally valuable when done to glorify God.

HOW DO WE RECEIVE A CALL? All callings don't come the same way. Let's examine these six individuals from the Bible to ascertain that.

1. Moses, he was called through a sovereign revelation from God Exodus 3:6-10.
2. David: he received a prophetic revelation 1 Samuel 16:1. David's call came through Samuel.
3. Joseph: he received a private revelation in a dream Genesis 37:5-7.
4. Elisha: he received his calling from his mentor, Elijah 1 Kings 19:15-16, 19
5. Nehemiah: he received a personal burden, Nehemiah 1:1-4
6. Esther: she received a public demand from the people Esther 4:13-14

What do we do to a call? Every call is there to meet a need and will impose responsibility on you. Respond to it. I pray that your life will not be ordinary as you step into greatness to fulfill your destiny.

WOMAN OF PURPOSE

- written by Toum Alabi

"Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations." Jeremiah 1:3

Our God is an awesome God, He created you for a purpose, you are created for greatness, you are born to rule and reign. God has a definite plan for your life, it is your responsibility to walk in the way of the Lord to fulfil destiny. When the Lord called Abraham, he was instructed to walk in the way of the Lord for him to accomplish the purpose of God for his life. Sometimes in life we belittle ourselves not sure of the plans and purpose of God over our lives, as we seek His face in truth and in spirit, He will unfold His plans and purpose over our lives.

Romans 15:4 tells us, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope" (KJV).

Queen Esther was a virtuous woman that fulfilled destiny as written in the 'Book of Esther', there are so many virtues that we can learn from her to enable us fulfil destiny. May the Holy Spirit open our eyes of understanding in Jesus Name.

1 Despise not the day of your little beginning: Queen Esther was not just an orphan that had to be raised by an uncle, she was also a slave in the land where God used her for great exploits. God qualified her to be a queen and made a way for her to present her matter before king Ahasuerus. No matter your position, situation, or circumstances God can use you for great and mighty things even beyond your own imagination. Remember that God specializes in using the weak things of the world to shame the wise.

2 Allow yourself to be mentored: Since nobody knows it all, allow yourself to be groomed, nurtured, and trained by men and women whom God has placed over you. Also, be prepared to be a mentor to other women in such a way that it will bring glory to God. Mentoring has nothing to do with age or position, therefore humble yourself before God and man in your day to day activities. Queen Esther was teachable and obedient which helped her on the way to greatness.

3 Embrace wisdom: It takes wisdom to seek and love God. Esther loved God and the people of God that she did not care about her own life. It is not just enough to make plans in life, you need to apply godly wisdom to all your plans. To gain wisdom requires constant fellowship with the Lord through His word and committing everything about you into His able hands. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105 (KJV).

4 Keep watch over your mouth: Some people have entered troubles because they did not learn how to keep their mouth under control. Queen Esther obeyed instruction not to reveal her identity which possibly could have been used against her. "Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips." Psalm 141:3 (KJV). Understanding the power of the tongue will help you to ask God to guard your mouth.

5 Let prayer be your lifestyle: The Bible encourages us to pray without ceasing. Mothers are the powerhouse in the home not by their own strength but by drawing strength from God through prayer and fasting. This role is very vital that husbands are commanded to give honor to their wives so that their prayers will not be hindered. A woman that understands her role will protect, uphold, defend her family through prayer. When queen Esther was confronted with a dilemma between life and death, she prayed and fasted for three days along with her brethren asking God for divine intervention.

6 Practice hospitality: Just like the Shunamite woman that used her ministry of hospitality to unlock her miracle (2 kings 4: 8 -13), Esther also applied the same principle that instead of accepting the offer from king Ahasuerus even up to half of his kingdom, she chose to invite the king and her enemy for banquet. Our father in the Lord daddy G.O. gave his first car and his first house to the Lord; today he is still reaping the benefit of giving. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" Galatians 6:7 (KJV).

7 Let your light shine: Recognize and embrace your area of calling. Let your light shine through the gift of God that is within you. Queen Esther allowed her light to shine by making herself available for the children of God. She was positioned in the palace for a purpose and did not allow that opportunity to be lost.

The Life of a Youth

- Written by Kassandra Ozabor

of worrying (Phil 4:6), let him prioritize my day (Matt 6:33), be honest about my sins knowing and unknowingly (James 4:10), think of others (Phil 2:3-4), wait patiently for God to act (Psalm 27:14), do what God says (James 1:22), be willing to carry out hard assignments (Matt 16:24), I allow Christ lead me (Matt 11:29) and lastly, read God's word (Psalm 119:9-16).

We are all born with life issues. Sometimes, I ask myself what I do with it. Do I stay where I am or lift myself up? As a youth, EVERYTHING you need to succeed is inside of you; despite it took me a very long time to realize it, but thanks to God for his undying LOVE and endless MERCY. He has equipped me to the fullest. It is also my duty as a Youth to support another struggling youth in every aspect of their lives.

A smile and hello goes a long way, offering a friendly heart and a listening ears also goes a long way. My acronym is HOPE (Helping One Person Every day). Furthermore, life struggles and temptations always get in the way but if you stay focused, hopeful, and have Faith in God, you will not go astray. Let no one despise your Youthful life in the ways and presence of the Lord Almighty and never forget to make your presence known to him. God is LOVE.

FOUNDATION FOR LIFE MAXIMIZATION - ARE YOU LED BY THE SPIRIT?

- written by Funmi Oni

It is common knowledge that we only live once. But the question is, "What are you doing to maximize the purpose of that thing". When a man is involved in a thought, utterance, or action that is not in line with the spirit of God, definitely the spirit other than God's spirit is in play.

Ask yourself this question, "Which spirit is leading me?" When you are in the church and out of the church, you need to ask yourself, "What spirit is leading me?"

If you engage in fights, and fraudulent activities, you need to ask yourself, "What spirit is leading me?" Romans 8:14. Agree to be led by the spirit of God. This means:

- You are born again and you have accepted the Lord as your Saviour.
- Your thoughts rub minds with the mind of God: When you think a thought contrary to the will of God, then the spirit of God has taken the back seat in your life. Live through the divine syllabus of God. Phillipians 4:8. Momentary thoughts can flash through, but because of the divine syllabus it does not take root in your life.
- Your speech is seasoned with grace. Psalm 84:11. If something doesn't edify God, then you are to take actions appropriately.
- The person's actions are spirit inspired, kingdom expanding and love motivated: Any action that is outside these three is not led by the spirit. Acts 6: 2-3. If you are not led by the spirit, you merely are in the church, but not of the church.

Effects of not being led by the Spirit:

- You are totally disconnected from God: You don't have access to spiritual insights. Any fellow who doesn't have access to spiritual information will be alone. 1 Cor 3: 3-4. This is why you see people eating regularly in their dreams.

- If you are not led by the Holy Spirit, then you are led by the spirit of the world: you become physically inclined and carnally motivated. Romans 8:9. Carnality is the attribute of one that is not spiritually connected with God. The person will be a regular tool of the devil.

Matthew 16:23 explains this- The devil wanted to use Peter to derail Jesus from saving the world. From day one, Jesus was led by the Spirit. Luke 3: 21-23. That you are led by the Spirit does not exempt you from temptation; it however guarantees your victory over temptation.

Without being led by the Spirit, you are unable to maximize this one life that you have. Galatians 1:16. Paul said to the Corinthians that flesh and blood will not inherit the kingdom of God. Don't give room to the flesh to maximize; don't let the flesh block your eternal life.

WHAT IS RIGHTEOUSNESS AND THE GREAT COMMISSION.

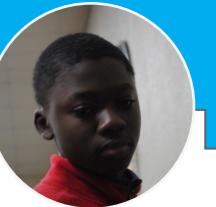

by Gloria Alabi

Righteousness means to obey God and do the right thing to please him by being Holy and acceptable unto God.

The Great Commission is a time when you go out to the world and evangelize about Christ, you obey everything that God commands you and you baptize disciples of Christ in the name of God the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Favorite memory verse: Psalm 91:2. "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the Shadow of the Almighty".

by Taiwo Oyediran

Righteousness to me is being holy and unsinful in the sight of God.

What I know about the great commission can be found from Matthew 28:16-20. The disciples went to Galilee and saw Jesus Christ. then Jesus commanded them to bring people from all nations to Christianity, baptizing them in the name of God the father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Favorite memory verse: Psalm 119:105. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path".

by Joseph Edoki

Righteousness is not only holiness but also a way of life as it relates to proper moral conduct and constant spiritual awareness.

The great commission was the verbal commandment of Christ mandating Christians to live an evangelical life.

Favorite memory verse: Psalm 130:3. "If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?".

by Eric Alabi

Righteousness is when following what is right and the act of following the agreement with God. And being in a good relationship with God.

I know the great commission as going out to evangelize and spread the word of God and winning souls for God.

Favorite memory verse: Psalm 100:1. "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands".

by Goodness Olabode

Righteousness is an act of being right and just according to the word of God.

Matthew 28:19-20 says go ye therefore and make them disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Favorite memory verse: Philippians 4:13 "I can do all things through who gives me strength".

REMOVE YOUR SELF IMPOSED LIMITATIONS

There are self-imposed limitations in the lives of many. In the text, Peter had a revelation, but refused to do what was asked of him. This limited his reach and extent of his ministry. Many pray against limitations, but don't act against them. When the trinity decided to visit Abraham, they only passed his house, but Abraham brought them into his house, and entertained them with the support of Sarah, his wife.

We live to the maximum when we relate with others. God can use a man to move you to the next level, but when you don't have relationship skills, you limit the manifestation of your destiny. Some people use their social class of educational status as an excuse not to mix with others. Many are unmarried because they want to marry from a particular class. I pray that every self-imposed limitation over your life will expire today in Jesus name.

In the text above, Peter knew it was God speaking to him through the revelation but he felt he was of a higher standard than what God was asking him to do. Many things that could have been Peter's got lost because of his refusal to do what God told him.

According to the Bible, Peter fell into trance. However, many do not have revelations from God because they do not have a relationship with him. Eternal limitations have minimum or no effect on anyone who has conquered self-imposed limitations; self-limitations are more difficult to remove than eternal limitations. Many are limiting themselves and they do not know. God cannot be limited or stranded. When Peter did not cooperate with God, he was substituted. No one is indispensable. If you say No to God, He would look for another person that would say yes. Many are suffering today because they said no to God's choice for them.

Acts 10:9-16

Many also are tied down with limitations rooted in ethnicity. They do not do business with or employ people from other tribes. God is the God of all flesh: Jer. 32:27. He can decide to bring you help from any corner of the earth. However, if you are only interested in the people from your tribe, village or town, you limit yourself. Some parents impose wills contrary to God's will on their children, thereby limiting those children.

Spiritual pride can also be the problem of a Christian, as it was with Peter. God told Peter not to regard as unclean what He (God) regarded as clean. There are people who cannot see good in others. God is not delivering breakthroughs to many because of the idols they worship, instead of God. Self-imposed limitations deny people access to great possibilities. When you get rid of self-imposed limitations, you begin to make remarkable progress in life.

As a man was passing the elephants, he suddenly stopped, confused by the fact that these huge creatures were being held by only a small rope tied to their front leg. No chains, no cages. It was obvious that the elephants could, at anytime break away from their bonds but for some reason, they did not.

He saw a trainer nearby and asked why these animals just stood there and made no attempt to get away. "Well," trainer said, "when they are very young and much smaller we use the same size rope to tie them and, at that age, it's enough to hold them. As they grow up, they are conditioned to believe they cannot break away. They believe the rope can still hold them, so they never try to break free."

The man was amazed. These animals could at any time break free from their bonds but because they believed they couldn't, they were stuck right where they were.
